ONCE MORE A JOINT.

Johnnie Collingsworth and Nick Childs' Partnership Affair is Closed.

Johnnie Collingsworth, professional gambler and club keeper, and Nick Childs, club keeper, sport and politician, who opened up an elaborate club in the basement of the old Adams House in North Topeka have quit business for the present at least.

Under Sheriff Tom Wilkerson and one deputy walked into this club about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon armed with a warrant and arrested the two proprietors.

In addition to placing the club keepers under arrest, the sheriff's force loaded up all the beer and club fixtures in sight into a wagon and hauled the whole outfit over to the court house.

The warrant on which the place was closed and Collingsworth and Childs arrested was sworn out before County Attorney H. C. Safford by William Alexander, better known as "Old Dad" Alexander, a colored man who formerly held a job on the street force. Collingsworth says Alexander only joined the club in the morning and that he had not yet got any beer on his ticket although he had beer once during the day in the club; having been treated by one of the old members.

Collingsworth says if he is convicted he will see to it that every other club in Topeka is closed on the same kind of evidence. He says no member was ever allowed any beer on his card until he had been a member twenty-four hours' time, enough to bring his beer from Kansas City.

When the men were taken before Judge Hazen their bonds were fixed at $800 each and after considerable hustling they were both successful in raising the required bail and were released. Their club fixtures and four kegs of beer are still stored in the court house.

ELLIS IN THE SIXTH.

The Probable Candidate of the Republicans for Congress.

S. H. Dodge of Beloit, a member of the board of regents of the State Normal school, is in the city. In speaking of the congressional situation in the Sixth district he said: "I am satisfied that Judge Ellis will be nominated for congress by the Republicans. The convention meets at Phillipsburg next Wednesday. There will be something of a fight but we expect to see Judge Ellis nominated without much trouble. We will elect whoever is nominated. There seems to be some doubt as to who will be the Populist candidate."

"We have elected out delegates to the state convention," said Mr. Dodge, "and they are only pledged for one man and that is Geo. W. Clark of Beloit for state auditor. Our delegates to the state convention are L. D. Young, F. Charlesworth, W. C. Perdue, O. P. Crowell, O. F. Tanquary, J. G. McClure, Lincoln Paris and Frank Hobart."

SOLOMON VS. BRODERICK.

Will Probably Be the Ticket in the First District.

"The Populists of the First congressional district will probably nominate Solomon of Atchison, for congress against Broderick," said ex-State Bank Commissioner Charles F. Johnson today.

THEY GET TOGETHER.

All Schools of Medicine Are United at Last.

DETERMINED TO SHUT OUT QUACKS.

The Doctors Convention at the State House Last Night Recommends the Illinois Medical Law.

The three schools of medicine—regular, homeopathic, and eclectic—have at last found neutral ground. They formed articles of union last night to fight irregular medical practitioners or "quacks."

They recommended the Illinois law governing the practice of medicine, to the legislature.

A programme had been prepared, but when Dr. Pelton read a paper on "Cause of Disease and its Prevention," the doctors said they had enough and the programme was abandoned. "We didn't come here to listen to lengthy papers on hygiene or anything else," said Dr. Guibor, "we came here to do something."

Dr. H. A. Dykes was elected chairman and Dr. W. E. McVey secretary. Dr. J. P. Stewart, of Clay Center, moved to have a committee of three from each medical school appointed to consider a bill to recommend to the legislature. Dr. Guibor objected to a mention of schools. "We don't want any school distinction made," he said, "I have been in the work before and I know something about the difficulty of working inside the schools. I object to saying anything about schools."

Dr. Swallow said: "I am not willing to let a party to any school boy play. All this talk about the schools is foolish and if we follow school lines we will meet defeat." He moved to table the motion but the motion to table was lost and the original motion adopted.

The chairman appointed Drs. L. A. Ryder, Frank Swallow, C. F. Menninger, J. P. Stewart, J. E. Weller, J. W. Peck, H. M. Hall, J. Furber, W. C. Hamilton, to prepare a bill to be considered by the convention.

At 5 o'clock the committee reported a bill similar to the Illinois law and the convention adjourned to 7:30 to consider the measure.

Dr. Guibor acted as chairman at the evening session.

The bill was read section by section and adopted without opposition, until the clause making ten years' practice in the state necessary for an irregular physician to secure a certificate. Dr. Swallow moved to amend by striking out "ten" and substituting the word "two." "You don't know what a terrible thing a Kansas lobby is," he said, "and it is getting worse every year. I have heard men say on this floor that they wouldn't give the practice of an old woman, in midwifery at least, for all the best practitioners in the state. There will be a lobby here that will come from all parts of western Kansas just to fight this ten year clause."

Dr. H. W. Roby thought five years would be more satisfactory and would incur the least opposition.

Dr. Furber and others held that ten years should be allowed to stand and it was finally adopted.

On motion of Dr. Roby the clause "for a livelihood" was added to the practice qualification.

There was some discussion about the clause granting licenses to vendors of patent medicines on the payment of $100 per month, but it was also adopted, as was the entire bill.

Dr. Stewart moved that a committee of three from each school be appointed to secure the passage of the bill of which Dr. Guibor was to be chairman and the motion was adopted. The chairman appointed Dr. S. E. Martin, Dr. T. Long, Dr. Hatfield, L. A. Ryder, C. F. Menninger, Frank Swallow, J. P. Stewart and G. A. Wall. This committee is to act in conjunction with the standing committee from each school.

Dr. Guibor closed the meeting with a short talk about his experience in attempting to secure the passage of medical laws and the practice of quacks. "Quacks are everywhere," he said, "and something that regular physicians are not and that is the power to cure all diseases. Kansas has been the dumping ground for all the United States, and the quacks of every description were welcomed here by our lax medical laws. The trouble with us in the past has been that from the time the bill was proposed until it came up we quarreled all the time among ourselves, didn't we, Dr. Roby?" "Yes," responded Dr. Roby, "except while we slept."

Dr. Guibor said in speaking of the state board of health: "Our present law is weak because it permits the governor to make political appointments on the board." The speaker in speaking of the fight between the schools said: "I am glad the regular profession is getting a little more liberal, and I think we are all ready to work together in this cause."

The following committee was appointed to notify physicians of the state of the action of the convention and request their co-operation: Drs. H. A. Dykes, M. B. Ward, Eva Harding, C. F. Menninger, W. C. Hamilton, and J. M. Westfield.

The secretary of the state board of health was empowered to appoint a finance committee.

The following physicians were in attendance: J. L. Owen, Rock Creek; C. R. Hardin, Adrian; F. H. Batter, Dover; S. E. Shelton, Topeka; J. H. Cannon, Topeka; S. G. Stewart, Topeka; F. Vogl, Junction City; Addie Allen, Junction City; Eva Harding, Topeka; L. M. Powell, Topeka; J. E. Minney, Topeka; H. M. Cornell, Kansas City; D. C. Tyler, Clifton; J. P. Stewart, Clay Center; E. V. LAST NIGHT'S FIRES.

Mrs. J. Horning's Barn Burned and a Slight Blaze on Kansas Avenue.

The barn of Mrs. J. Horning at 222 Monroe street was almost destroyed by fire at 5:30 last evening. The fire was probably of incendiary origin. It had gained such headway that the efforts of the firemen were directed towards saving the several other barns close to it. The contents which were owned by the Symms Grocery company were taken out. The damage is estimated at $800. The barn of Charles Younggreen and another owned by a Santa Fe conductor were slightly burned.

At 9:15 last night there was a small blaze on the upper floor of 705 Kansas avenue occupied by Payne's shoe store. It was checked with a chemical stream. The fire was in a box of waste paper left there by a printer who occupied the second story. Some water dripped into the shoe store, but Mr. Payne's loss will be covered by insurance.

MISS YAW SINGS.

She Wins the Admiration of a Large Audience at the Grand.

It is difficult to see why Miss Ellen Beach Yaw is advertised as a freak instead of an artist. That she is an artist no one who heard her sing at the Grand opera house last night will gainsay. She has a mezzo-soprano voice of the rarest sweetness. Its melody was most effective in "The Last Rose of Summer" which she sang as an encore. All the selections on the programme were of difficult music. Miss Yaw's rendition of them showed a thoroughly trained voice suitable for concert singing if not for grand opera. Miss Yaw satisfied the curiosity of those who were anxious to hear her reach the extraordinary high notes which was the chief feature of the advertisements. She accomplished the feat with grace, the notes bubbling forth as clear as a bird's whistle. Miss Yaw has been in this country but three months since completing her musical education. Next month she goes to Europe and makes her debut in London.

The violinist, Mr. Maximilian Dick, is a skilled performer and gave several pleasing selections. His music is of the popular class. Miss Georgiella Lay the piano accompanist, is a player of great ability, and drew out the sweet tones of a magnificent Kimball piano to good advantage. There was a large audience present.
